

MATMIDOT Application:

I. Please answer 2 of the following 4 questions (maximum 150 words)

Have you participated in extra learning outside of school? If so, in what context (formal program, hevruta, independent)? What did you choose to learn and why?

If you were given the gift of an extra day in your week, how would you use it?

Identify a need in your Jewish community. Propose, in brief, an initiative that would address this need.

Describe the contribution that you hope to make to the Midreshet Lindenbaum community.

II. Proposal for a learning project

Each Matmidot Scholar will choose a topic to extensively research, under the guidance of a faculty mentor, and will ultimately publish a written article for the Matmidot Lindenbaum Torah Journal.

- Each Matmidot Scholar will choose a topic to extensively research, under the guidance of a faculty mentor, and will ultimately publish a written article in the Matmidot Lindenbaum Torah Journal.

Please submit a proposal of approximately 200-300 words describing a Tanach/Gemara/Halacha/Machshevet Yisrael topic that you would like to pursue as a Matmidot Scholar at Midreshet Lindenbaum.

Your proposal should include the following elements:

- Question you would like to examine/topic you would like to explore
- History - What is your motivation to pursue this project? Why is this question/topic significant to you?
- Impact - how do you think your research might affect you and/or contribute to the Torah community?

Questions? Contact lindenbaum.matmidot@ots.org.il for more information.

Recommendation Form

Name of recommender:

Relationship to applicant:

Email:

Phone Number: